	based on eligibility for free or reduced-price lunch subsidies, or other poverty measures that the State permits the LEAs to use. For middle and high schools, eligibility may be calculated on the basis of comparable data from feeder schools. Lowest-performing schools are those that are in improvement, corrective action or restructuring in which the data indicate that overall student achievement is extremely low and that little or no progress has occurred over a number of years. Pay for Performance Fund Criteria: Funds will go to a pay for performance pilot program. Participation will be on a voluntary first come, first served basis. Districts with the lowest performing schools, based on data collected for Adequate Yearly Progress under the federal Elementary and Secondary Schools Act, will be actively recruited for participation. Specific performance criteria will be developed in partnership with the Education Secretary, the Taskforce for Schools Most in Need of Improvement, and an Exemplary Teacher's Panel of past national award winners.
